WHAT'S

September – December 2026

Tickets: 03 9784 1060 or thefac.com.au

Frankston Arts Centre

Frankston Arts Centre is a landmark arts facility located close to public transport, shops, cafes and restaurants and is served by an underground car park.

Frankston Arts Centre features:

- an 800 seat theatre
- a flexible function centre
- a 200 seat black box theatre
- six exhibition spaces
- and a variety of rooms and spaces available for workshops and functions.

Frankston Arts Centre's annual program features performances by national and international touring companies. The free exhibition program showcases local and international artists and most artwork is available for sale.

Frankston Arts Centre hosts events by local schools and community groups, offers a wide range of workshops and promotes accessibility through its Arts Access program. Frankston Arts Centre's facilities are hired by commercial clients and community organisations, making it one of Melbourne's busiest venues.

FAC Partnerships

Frankston Arts Centre is proud to be associated with our Partners and is dedicated to providing them with unique and imaginative opportunities to support their marketing and business objectives.

Frankston Arts Centre believes in building long-term, meaningful relationships with its Partners to deliver mutual benefits which support the arts and engage the community.

"EastLink is proud to continue our long-standing partnership with Frankston Arts Centre into 2026. Since 2012, we've championed the arts and celebrated the role they play in enriching our communities. Our brand promise — 'Time better spent' — is about more than just travel; it's about making time for what matters. Whether it's a night at the theatre or a weekend concert, EastLink helps you get there safely and quickly, so you can spend more time enjoying the experiences you love."

Returning to stage with new surprises!

Sammy J's award-winning show is a real-life, hilarious comic book adventure that proves sometimes truth really is stranger than fiction.

30 years ago, Sammy J traded comics with his school gardener. 10 years ago, he wrote a show about it. How does an awkward nerd end up with a federal policeman searching his attic? Why does Sammy owe his marriage to the United Nations? And how did he insert himself into a Parliamentary maiden speech?

TimeOut

A kid with a camera. Two adults. No rehearsal.

Following acclaimed national festival performances, we are thrilled to present this unique docudrama.

Enter the mind's eye of Bub, an 11-year-old girl who's obsessed with documentary filmmaking. In the aftermath of a family breakdown, she turns to dramatised re-enactments to try to figure out what happened. Two unrehearsed actors play the parents, while a child performer directs the action.

The script is playful, heartfelt and funny, but the picture shifts with the whims of the human impulse as actors respond live and unprepared. Bub wants to get to the bottom of her mum's erratic behaviour. Can these two adults answer the tough questions of a child?

A music-fuelled circus space romp of galactic proportions.

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, part-time genius, full-time rat-bag, can't finish his lullaby. The final notes of Twinkle Twinkle Little Star have vanished, so he builds a rocket and blasts into space with his best friend, a circus bear. They tumble through galaxies of asteroids and roaring space dinosaurs—but a galactic glitch could strand them light-years from home. To find their way back, Wolfgang discovers that a little stardust... and a loyal friend... are all you need.

Wolfgang in the Stars dazzles all ages with acrobatics, puppetry, live video, music, and a heartwarming message: imagination travels faster than light!

Wolfgang in the Stars is commissioned by QPAC, The Art House Wyong, Mackay Entertainment & Convention Centre and Riverside Theatres Parramatta. Originally Produced By: QPAC's Out of the Box and Circa.

Circa acknowledges the assistance of the Australian Government through Creative Australia, its principal arts investment and advisory body and the Queensland Government through Arts Queensland.

Circa is based in Meanjin (Brisbane) on the lands of the Jagera and Turrbal people. We respectfully acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of the many lands on which we create and perform. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging. Always was. Always will be.

'Australia's best tribute act' brings the biggest hits of the 60s and 70s to life in a spectacular production packed with soaring harmonies, slick choreography, and unstoppable energy. From the rock 'n' roll swagger of Elvis Presley to the silky harmonies of The Beach Boys and the anthems of The Beatles, The 60 Four capture the magic of the era with style. Add in the soaring falsetto of Frankie Valli, the disco fever of The Bee Gees, the energy of Johnny O'Keefe, and the timeless pop of ABBA – and you've got a two-hour hit parade that will have every generation on their feet.

This is more than a tribute show – it's a full-scale celebration of the soundtrack of a generation. For those who lived it, it's a chance to relive the magic. For those discovering it for the first time, it's proof that great music never goes out of style. Don't miss the show audiences young and old are raving about.

"Utterly compelling."

Sydney Morning Herald

Following a bloody battle, Macbeth and his comrade Banquo are met by three Weird Sisters who prophesy Macbeth will one day be king.

Unable to shake the thought, Macbeth tells his wife, Lady Macbeth. Driven by an insatiable hunger for power, posterity and certainty, they commit a murder and set in motion the unravelling of their sanity. With blood on their hands, they face the dire consequences of their despicable actions.

A terrifying portrayal of moral collapse, Peter Evans' Macbeth, with Anthony Taufa in the title role, will take you on an intense journey into the dark heart of humanity.

Bell Shakespeare is assisted by the Australian Government through Creative Australia, its principal arts investment and advisory body, and by the NSW Government through Create NSW.

Frankston Arts Centre & Peninsula Health DialysART from the Haemodialysis Unit

Friday 23 October to Saturday 13 February

In partnership with Peninsula Health, Frankston Arts Centre delivers art for wellbeing sessions for patients undergoing dialysis in the Haemodialysis Unit at Frankston Hospital. Guided by a professional arts therapist, participants explore drawing and painting, experiment with colour and materials, and engage in conversations around creativity and mental wellbeing.

These sessions provide a meaningful opportunity for connection, self-expression and creative discovery during treatment. This exhibition celebrates the artworks and personal experiences of the patient-artists involved in the program.
