ABOUT FRANKSTON ARTS CENTRE

The Frankston Arts Centre (FAC) is a purpose-built performing and visual arts venue.

The Frankston Arts Centre is one of the largest outer metropolitan arts venues in Australia incorporating an 800 seat theatre, 6 exhibition gallery spaces, a function centre, a black box theatre and a creative arts hub.

The Centre attracts approximately 250,000 visitors each year. Over 50% of visitors come from outside the Frankston municipality, most notably from the Mornington Peninsula and Westernport regions, as well as Melbourne's bayside and along EastLink to Ringwood.

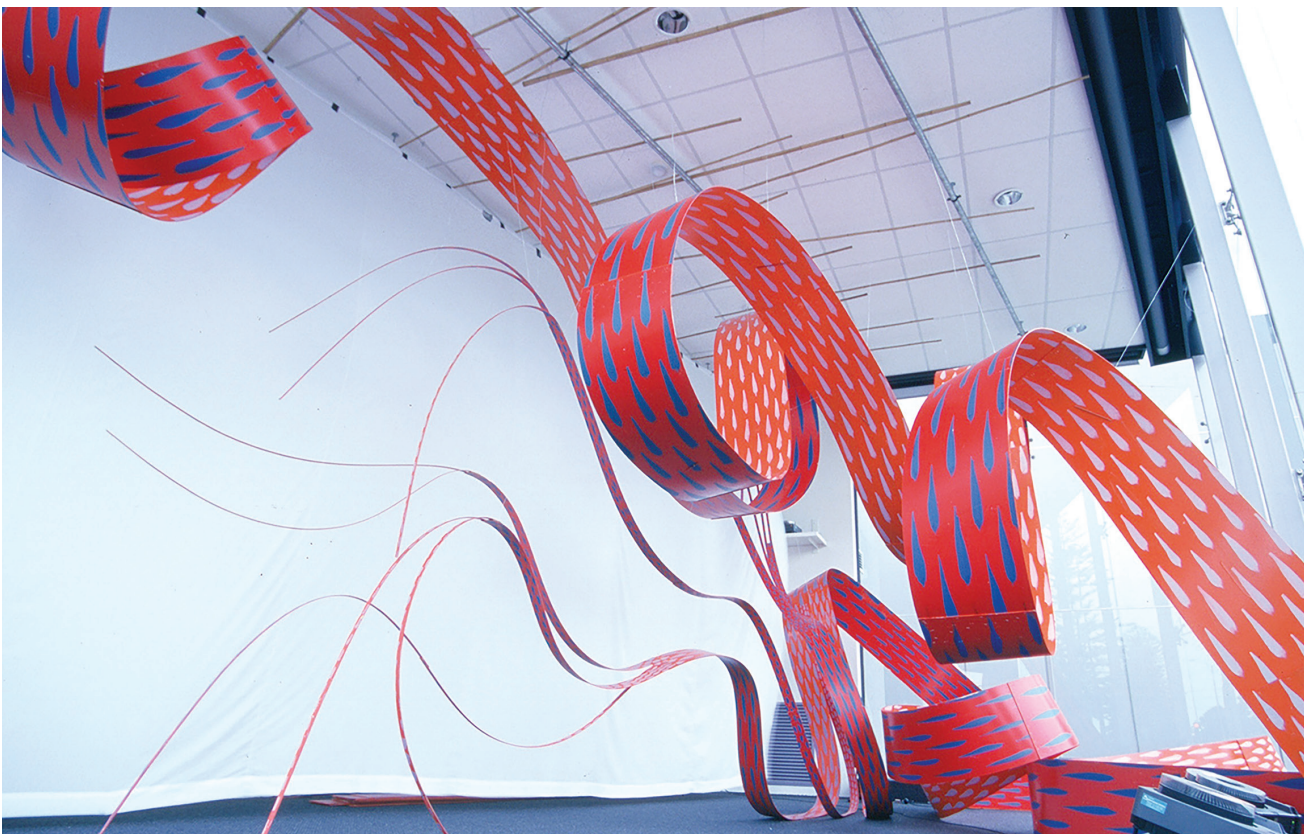

Renowned for its variety of theatre, visual arts and digital arts, from local, national and international artists, FAC's mission is to provide and inspire creative experiences that strive for positive community participation and engagement.

CUBE 37 GLASS CUBE GALLERY

FAC invite visual artists to express their interest to exhibit in the high exposure and 24 hour street front public art space of Glass Cube Gallery at Cube 37. Submissions can be interactive or large scale sculptural installations which can be lit up or incorporate projections at night let your imagination run wild – the sky's the limit! Original, engaging and unique installations are what we are looking for. So if you are feeling inspired, pitch us your idea.

CUBE 37 GLASS CUBE GALLERY

GLASS CUBE GALLERY

Cube 37 derives its name from the Glass Cube at the front of the building. The Glass Cube Gallery defines the image of Cube 37 and aims to showcase quality artwork that best utilizes the dimensions of the space day and night.

The Glass Cube can be viewed at all times from the street front, not only by the 250 000 patrons that visit the FAC annually but also by passing foot and automobile traffic.

EXHIBITION OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Glass Cube Gallery:

- Develop and portray a striking contemporary identity of Cube 37, Frankston Arts Centre. Artists to be creative with their art practice and encourage collaboration across various art forms that can be presented day and night.
- Engage a broad cross section of the community via ancillary community engagement activities.
- Purely for long term exhibition programming. Not a promotional space or room for hire. No brands or agendas other than high quality art applications please!

GENERAL GUIDELINES

- Daytime exhibitions generally consist of three dimensional works that are site specific and can also be viewed through the night. Sculpture based installations and sound art applications are strongly encouraged.
- Audience interaction can be encouraged within the space during gallery opening hours. Tuesday-Friday 11am-4pm, Saturday 9am-2pm. Exhibition slots are 2 -3 months.
- The installation is of a large scale that can be viewed from outside the space from a distance.
- Light based projections, video and cross media art forms and soundscapes are encouraged for an Art After Dark component .
- Exhibitions are viewed at night time from outside the glass studio including a major audience of passing traffic and guests entering and leaving the performing arts centre.
- Exhibitions can either restrict entry with viewing from the street front only or entry can be permitted during gallery opening hours.
- Large scale installations are advised from October to April due to longer daylight hours and digital installations are advised during other times of the year. However, if logistical requirements permit, a combination of the two is encouraged.
- Collaborations between sound, digital and sculpture artists are suited to the space.
- Please note that height and rigging restrictions may apply for artworks within this space.
- The gallery spaces at the Frankston Arts Centre are open to the public and as such all artwork exhibited needs to be suitable for all ages and general public.
